

Jump Start Your Dreams with Secrets of the Successful

For those who want to be more successful at work, in business, or personal life, but don't know where to start, stop wondering and discover those inner Success Factors. Audiences learn the secrets that lie at the cornerstone of all successful people.

Dr. Julie Miller's uplifting message will inspire audiences to unleash their success, expand their accomplishments, and jump-start their dreams!

Get to the Top of your Game -- Three Foolproof Success Secrets!

With business moving at the speed of light, and competition stiffer than ever, everyone needs a competitive edge.

Business moves at the speed of light these days and competition is stiffer than ever. Everyone needs a competitive edge. In this engaging speech, Dr. Julie Miller shares three foolproof success mindsets that are the cornerstone of all successful people. By putting them to use, business professionals can reach the pinnacle of their game. Through thought-provoking inquiry and compelling anecdotes from her newest book, Secrets of Self-Starters, Dr. Julie inspires audiences to their greatest achievements.

Vision, Passion, Perseverance: Getting to What Matters Most

A program for the corporate executive. With employee disengagement at an all-time high, leaders must now re-focus on what matters most. In an engaging speech, Dr. Julie Miller asks audiences to step back and reassess those core factors that made them and their organization successful.

Through lessons learned from her latest research with successful leaders, audiences leave motivated, empowered, and inspired to once again capture the passion and vision of the organization and its employees. They will leave thinking differently about the organization's future and their own.